

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?

-JOHN 1:38

I am searching for a career...I have dreams...

I want to find out what to do with my life.

I have to decide whether to be single or married.

I would like to do something for others in need.

I desire to make a better world.

All these desires are good, but there is a moment in our lives when we have to allow God to come in. We have to ask: Lord, What do you expect from me? This is vocation. God calls, we answer.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Virgin Mary, mother of Jesus and mother of the Church, to you we commend our young people, in particular those called to closely follow your Son.

You know the difficulties, struggles and obstacles they must face.

Assist them to answer 'yes' to the divine call, as you did the invitation of the angel.

Draw them near to your heart so they can understand the beauty and the joy that awaits them when the Lord Jesus calls them into His intimacy, to be witnesses of His Love in the world. Amen.

SPEAK, LORD, YOUR SERVANT IS LISTENING

1 SAMUEL 3:10

WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM ME, LORD?

Open your ears and hear the cries of the people who are suffering, living in despair, feeling abandoned...

Open your eyes and see "the goodness of the Lord" in your life. How many times and in how many ways has God tried to reach out to you...

Pray, asking God to show you which way to go, to help you deal with your fears and faults, to strengthen you in your resolutions...

HERE I AM, SEND ME

ISAIAH 6:8

Lay people represent Christ moving the world according to the demands of the Kingdom of God.

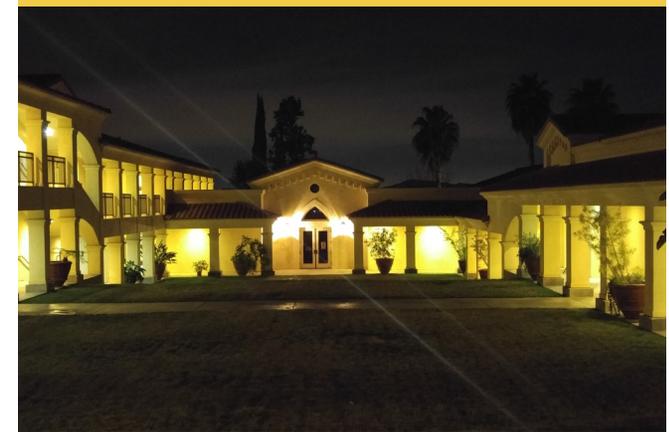

Religious persons represent Christ, reminding us of the "new heaven and new earth".

Ordained men represent Christ, the Head and Good Shepherd, who cares for his people.

Married couples represent Christ's love, creating a "domestic church".
